

In the year 1996 in Germany a tsunami flushed a few obscure lifeforms onto stages countrywide. The lead singer disappeared in somewhat obscure circumstances, and left the only clue, „Pozor Vlak“. Yeah.

The sound? Instrumental surfmusic. Wild percussion. Loud and catchy guitar. A steamy beat and a proper injection of Punk.

Inspired by old heroes, Dick Dale, Link Wray, The Ventures, and surf(punk) bands from „the 3rd wave“, Man or Astroman?, Bomboras and the Phantom Surfers, all ingredients of the special surfmusic cocktail brewed for you by the 5 members of Pozor Vlak.

Over the years, Pozor Vlak have shared the stage with many assorted illustrious artists Thee Headcoats, King Khan & his shrines, Boss Martians, Freygang, The Satelliters, The Razorblades, The Space Agency, The Kilaueas, Surfer Joe, The Mofos and many more.

The live set offers, besides the best from their diverse range of releases, a selected choice of general classics of surf and surf adapted coverversions of bands from Dead Kennedys to Kaoma.

Tracks from their latest EPs "Bunga Bunga Party!"/"Dawn Surf" and new songs like "Feuerqualle," "Schnellfickerhose" (quickyfuckpants) and "Nomads of the Sea" naturally feature their Life Performances.

In existence since: 1996

Singer: Lost on/off since 1996

Sound: Instrumental surf music. Percussion. Reverb. Sleek beats. Garage punk.

Inspired by: Dick Dale, Link Wray, The Ventures, third-wave surf(punk) bands like Man or Astroman?, Bomboras, Phantom Surfers

Played with: Thee Headcoats, King Khan & his shrines, Boss Martians, Freygang, The Satelliters, The Razorblades, The Space Agency, The Kilaueas, Surfer Joe, The Mofos, and many others.

Live set: Lots of original material from various releases. Surf classics. Surf cover versions from the Dead Kennedys to Kaoma.

Latest releases: "Bunga Bunga Party! - 3 surfin instrumentals" - 7inch (2023) "Dawn Surf" - 5 track digital EP.